Conts. of £ at current rates of exchange. No more favourable rates have been sanctioned by Govt. for such remittances.

As the rates of exchange for Home remittances are very high. Yesterday's quotation being 1.25 for Rupee, I think that a public concession may be granted to Officers of India and they be allowed to remit at the rate of exchange fixed by the Govt. of India for transactions between the Home & Indian governments - This

On account has already been allowed in case

If the Council should approve of the above suggestion, I beg to recommend that the maximum amt. due remitted at one time be fixed at $\frac{1}{2}$ the salary of the officer making the rem^{ce} -

The rate for 1892-93 pro-granted will not be very much.

NOTIFICATION.

The 1st July 1886.

No. 118.—The management of the Mysore State Railway has this day been transferred to the Southern Mahratta Company (Limited).

2. The establishment hitherto employed by the State in the working of the Railway, has also been transferred to the Company, with the exception of the few officers who have been given notice that their services would not be required in the future. The officers and servants of all grades who have been transferred to the Company, are hereby required to place themselves under the orders of the Agent. Such of them as are on the pensionable service of the State will, notwithstanding such transfer, continue to be regarded as belonging to the State service, but they must keep alive their claims for pension from the State by paying the contributions prescribed in that behalf by the Civil Pension Code.

3. It must be understood that the transfer makes no change in the Civil, Criminal and Police jurisdiction heretofore exercised over the line of the State Railway by the proper officers of the Mysore State in accordance with the laws for the time being in force.

4. The Medical Staff and arrangements will continue to be, as hitherto, under the control of the Senior Surgeon to the Mysore Government, pending further orders.

5. All contracts with the Mysore Government that have not lapsed by failure on the part of the contractors, will continue in force until the expiry of the date specified for completion, or until non-fulfilment of any of the terms of the agreement.

6. Arrangements at present obtaining for the supply of fuel by the Forest or Revenue officers of the State will hold good, pending arrangements on the part of the Company for the future supply.

By Order,
R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Chief Secretary.

Q. 11. 16-92-5

2-0

BANGALORE,
1st April 1893.

DEAR SIR,

I am directed to inform you as follows :—

The Government have received suggestions for the extension to British Officers lent to the State of the orders contained in Proceedings No. 8307—G. 2023, dated 10th December 1892, relating to the family remittances made by Officers of the Mysore Local Service, and it is therefore necessary to explain that in the first place, the Darbar cannot grant to British Officers any concession such as that involved, without the previous consent of the Government of India. It may at the same time be pointed out that the orders issued by the Darbar had special reference to two facts, namely :—

1st—that the salaries of local Officers are considerably lower than those attached to similar appointments in British India; and 2ndly—that it was understood that the question of allowing British Officers more liberal concessions than those in force, was under the consideration of the Secretary of State.

It was with special reference to the latter fact that the order in question was issued as “ a temporary measure.” Under such circumstances, it is desirable now to notify that any final system adopted in Mysore will not really be more liberal than what may eventually be sanctioned for British Officers by the Secretary of State, for, in this matter, as in that of pension payments in England, the Darbar wish, as far as possible, to follow the British system. Under such circumstances, it will presently be made known that the “ arrangement now in force under the orders of 10th December last, is liable to revision by the Darbar either upon the settlement of the question as regards British Officers, or at any rate by the end of December 1893, by prescribing a further limit by way of an annual maximum amount, or in any other manner which may commend itself to the Darbar.”

I am,
Yours very truly,

(General),—dated 23rd December 1893.

No. 9946—G. F. 453-92, DATED, BANGALORE, 23RD DECEMBER 1893.

ORDER.—By Orders No. 8307—G. 2023-92, dated 10th December 1892, the Officers of the Mysore Local Service, were, as a temporary measure, permitted to remit to England for the support or education of members of their families dependent upon them in England, any sums, not exceeding a moiety of their salaries at 1s. 4½d. per rupee, on requisitions of the Comptroller on Messrs. Coutts and Co., London. In April 1893, the Mysore Government further intimated its intention to prescribe for such remittances a further limit by way of an annual maximum amount.

2. The Government of India, in their Financial Resolution No. 3624A of 18th August 1893, sanctioned for British Officers, European or Eurasian, not domiciled in India an Exchange compensation allowance equivalent to the difference between the rate of 1s. 6d. per rupee and the actual market rate, on one-half the salary, but not exceeding a maximum limit of £1,000 per annum.

3. The Government of His Highness the Maharaja are unable to apply to the Officers of the Local Service the Rules of the Government of India described in the preceding para in their entirety. The question of domicile is one always difficult satisfactorily to solve, and, as the intended relief is for the express purpose of compensating Officers for the extra cost of English remittances due to the depreciation of the rupee, it will meet all legitimate requirements to give to local officers the concession of making remittances at the special privileged rate of 1s. 6d. the rupee, to the extent actually necessary for the support or education of members of their families resident in England, provided that in no case shall such remittances exceed one-half of the monthly salary or a total of Rs. 15,000 per annum. Until further orders such remittances may continue to be made, as hitherto, by requisitions of the Comptroller upon Messrs. Coutts and Co., London.

4. Under such circumstances His Highness the Maharaja's Government are pleased to direct the adoption until further orders of the following Rule in lieu of the one contained in Proceedings No. 8307—G. 2023-92, dated 10th December 1892:—

Sir

I beg to enclose a letter from the Comptroller replying to an inquiry of mine as to whether he would pay me the difference on my half-pay @ 1/6 and at 1/4 ³² per paper from the 1st April last, to end of Nov. 1893, seeing that I was at home on furlough till 18th July 1893, having taken over charge of the Central College on 19th July.

I further explained to him that on my return here I had made some Family Remittances direct through the Madras Bank, & not through the Comptroller, as I had to remit more than a moiety of my pay. In these circumstances I said that I considered I ought to be paid the difference on a month of my pay between the ~~new~~ the old privileged rates, at least from the 1st of July, whether I remitted that month through the Comptroller or not, when I certify & can easily get the Bank to certify that I remitted at least a month to my wife for family purposes. I said I should also expect & hope that my half pay (approximately) drawn as family allowance from 1st April to 28th of 1893 would be included, and have the same privilege accorded to it.

It is not very encouraging to one in my position to realise that owing to the depreciation of the rupee I am not now after so many years in India so well off as when I first came out to India in 1877, and not nearly so well off as I should

There has been a great change in

Sir

Principal Central College

I am directed to acknowledge of letter of 13 Jan 1894, and in reply to inform you that the Comptroller is right in expressing his opinion that the existing Rules do not entitle you either to pay 'allowances' at the privileged rate, or to the difference between that rate & actual rate on remittances made otherwise than through him & Messrs Coutts & Co - at privileged rates

The question of 'allowances' has not yet been considered, and the Exch. ~~are not aware~~ are not in possession of any info as to the action of the British Govt. on the subject -

On the other question I am to point out that if payment of ~~family~~ ~~and~~ ~~differs~~ between privileged & actual rates on family remittances made other wise than this the Comptroller involves much inconvenience & trouble & the Govt are not there fore prepared to recognize it, as a general rule. But in this instance as the Special case the Comptroller has been authorized to pay you the difference between privileged & actual rates on family remittances made by you (thus the mandamus is accompanied by the prescribed Certificate from yourself, with an order me to draw a moiety of my

I have worked very hard for the past 20 years, and in consideration of the heavy expenses involved in a trip to England - which is so necessary for the recuperation of my health - I feel sure that the trifling concession now asked for will not be denied me.

I would further beg that the Comptroller may be authorized to permit me to draw my furlough half pay at the special privileged rate of $1\frac{1}{5}\%$ per rupee sanctioned in the Govt proceedings No 9945 dated 23rd December 1893, as the whole of my allowances (& much more) will "be bonafide required for the" support and education of my family dependent on me" in England. "Understand that the Govt was pleased to concur in this concession to some other Mysore officers, and I am therefore emboldened to hope that the privilege may be extended to me.

My dear Mr. Srinivasan,

I have been to see the Comptroller about my Family Remittance to be paid.

According to Mr. R. S. Srinivasan's opinion on account to remit half their monthly pay at 1/6 per Rs. accordingly I remit Rs. 350 per month.

I asked the Comptroller to allow me to have this done while I was away, but he said I must have to obtain Mr. Srinivasan's as it was not permitted to Officers on duty to remit and not to Officers on leave.

I beg to hope you will kindly put this matter before Mr. E. K. Devan and have orders passed to the Comptroller, permitting me to remit as usual my half monthly pay.

Yours sincerely

To the Secretary, Mysore Govt.

Dear Sir,

Some four weeks back I addressed to you a letter relative to the half-pay due to me during the months of Apr May & June when I was leave in England. I have received no reply of any kind & am afraid that it is just possible my letter may have miscarried.

I understand that an Order from Government is necessary before I can draw my salary for the above-mentioned months. I want my half pay to be made payable in England when I incurred many expenses at the privileged rate of $\frac{1}{6}$ ^s

I shall be glad at an early reply, as you will understand I am in need of the money.

I should therefore esteem it a favor and it will simplify

Sir,

In his communications to me Dr. Evans stated that I should enjoy the privilege of having half my salary sent to any "gold pay-one shilling and sixpence per Rupee.

Wishing to avail myself of this privilege for the month of March I found that the blank forms supplied for the purpose restrict this privilege to persons persons wishing to send money to relatives residing in England. As my home is in Canada, I beg you to kindly lay before the Government of Mysore my request to have half my salary made payable to my above rate of exchange. The Bank this should be found necessary.
